RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK
June 22 - 29

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation.

ON THE COVER

The theme of this year's Religious Freedom Week is "Called to the Fullness of Dignity." The week begins with the feast of Ss. Thomas More and John Fisher, and ends with the feast of Ss. Peter and Paul.

FORMING DISCIPLES, BECOMING SAINTS

Welcome to St. Michael the Archangel Family of Parishes. Our Family is comprised of six churches: Mary, Help of Christians in Fairborn, Sacred Heart in New Carlisle, St. Augustine in Jamestown, St. Brigid in Xenia, St. Luke the Evangelist in Beavercreek, and St. Paul in Yellow Springs. Two of our churches, St. Brigid and St. Luke, also have schools with preschool through eighth grades.

We are part of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and were combined as a Family in July of 2022 to be "Beacons of Light," an Archdiocese-wide, multi-year initiative to better array resources for spreading the Gospel far and wide. SMAFP staff are listed below and on subsequent pages dedicated to each church.

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Beloved in Christ,

I invite you to sign up for Flocknote (instructions below) to participate in an upcoming survey about Mass times at all six of our parishes. When I and three priests arrived on July 1, 2022, we had to act quickly to make some adjustments to create a Mass schedule that four priests could cover. The new schedule began Sept. 1, 2022. Thanks for your flexibility!

We seem to have the right number of Masses, but the schedule needs to be tweaked to maximize our sacramental reach. We plan to use an online survey to help us collect data from parishioners between now and Fourth of July. After that, we will announce an adjusted Mass schedule to begin on August 1.

We celebrate two solemnities this week! This Monday, June 24, is the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. He is one of only three persons whose natiivities are celebrated on the Church's liturgical calendar. Who are the other two?

Notice how daylight begins to decrease at the birth of St. John the Baptist and daylight increases as we celebrate the Nativity of the Lord. St. John is quoted as saying: "He must increase, I must decrease." (John 3:30) What great advice for us as well! We will have Mass at St. Luke at 8:30 a.m. and at Mary, Help of Christians at 9 a.m.

Saturday, June 29, is the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul. Our Mass for the solemnity of these two chief Apostles is at St. Luke at 8:30 a.m.

In between those two solemnities is the feast of St. Josemaría Escrivá on Wednesday, June 26. Even though there is no feast on the Church's calendar, I will offer the Mass of the memorial of St. Josemaría at St. Luke's 8:30 a.m. Mass. Moreover, we will have a reception in Kramer Hall celebrating the legacy of this great saint. All are welcome! Other Masses on Wednesdays in our Family of Parishes are 8 a.m. at St. Brigid, 9 a.m. at Sacred Heart and 6 p.m. at St. Paul.

Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

God Bless,
Fr. Bedel

Anniversary of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate the 203rd anniversary of the establishment of our archdiocese (then diocese) by Pope Pius VII. For over two centuries, Catholics in these 19 counties of western and southwestern Ohio have celebrated and shared in our Lord's presence and mission as members of the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church. Throughout these many years, the Church has responded to the pastoral, spiritual, and temporal needs of people, proclaiming the Gospel through word and action. It is fitting, therefore, to mark the anniversary of the establishment of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati by considering how we may continue to grow together as the Church in this time and place.

Beacons of Light highlights the call of every person to actively participate as "a member of a parish, the Universal Church, and our local Church" and to "continually deepen the bond of communion with other parishes." Consistent with this principle, many Families of Parishes recognize the benefit of working together to serve the poor, reach out to those who are homebound, engage young people in the faith, and better use their resources to fulfill Christ's great commission to share the Good News of salvation. Such collaboration in ministry is encouraging. Still, there is even more we can do to further Christ's mission into the future through the parishes and ministries of the archdiocese.

This year, Catholics throughout the United States continue to participate in the National Eucharistic Revival, a three-year movement to deepen understanding and devotion to this great mystery of our faith. As St. Augustine teaches us, the Church and the Eucharist are two facets of the same reality, the Divine Person of Jesus Christ. The Revival invites us to reflect on the gift and fruit of Christ's enduring Eucharistic presence in the Church. Through prayer, reflection, catechesis and celebration, we are reminded of Christ's great sacrifice and our responsibility to give freely and fully in order to share God's love with others.

Our participation in the Eucharist draws us into metanoia – a fundamental and enduring change of mind and heart – in order to be more like the One whose Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity we receive in Holy Communion. Change typically is not easy, either for ourselves or for the Church. Yet change is necessary. The circumstances in which the Church operates now are different than they were two hundred years ago, or during any period of time in between. We therefore must consider whether all our resources and activities are properly oriented to helping people encounter Christ and grow more deeply in love with Him through His Church.

On this anniversary of the archdiocese, we pray for a deepening of devotion to our Lord in the Eucharist and that this devotion will foster a greater spirit of unity in our Families of Parishes, our archdiocese and the entire Catholic Church.

Sincerely yours in Christ

Most Reverend Dennis M. Schnurr
Archbishop of Cincinnati

THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

“It is sad to realize that as so many believe Jesus is Present in the Blessed Sacrament, they so seldom visit Him. Men travel across the oceans to see ancient ruins, paintings, landscapes, celebrities, and mountains, but they do not think of going into a simple church around the corner to visit the Creator of all beauty.”

Thank you all so much for the support during my surgery. The Masses, candles, cards and prayers were a source of comfort to me. I am eternally grateful for your kindness and concern. May God Bless you. —Wanda Mason.

Jesus Is Waiting for You

The late Mother Angelica, Foundress of the Eternal Word Television Network, said, “I live because of the Eucharist.” At EWTN, we follow her lead as we continue telling the world about the Most Blessed Sacrament.

As we all look forward to the upcoming National Eucharistic Congress this summer, EWTN wants to help you deepen your understanding of the Most Holy Eucharist. Please sign up today for our free Eucharistic Devotion video series with Fr. Wade Menezes, CPM.

La Natividad de San Juan Bautista

24 de Junio

San Juan el Bautista era el primo de Jesucristo. San Juan Bautista preparó el camino para Jesucristo y fue el que lo bautizó. San Juan Bautista, ayúdanos a preparar nuestro camino para poder ser dignos de encontrarnos con nuestro Señor.
¡San Juan Bautista, ruega por nosotros!

Welcome,

Whether you are passing through, or looking for a spiritual home, we welcome you to St. Brigid Catholic Church of the St. Michael the Archangel Family of Parishes. We hope you find our worship environment hospitable and prayerful. People often attend Mass at a parish for months or years without officially registering.

To be registered here at St. Brigid is an expression of your commitment to being an active member of our community. It also simplifies sacramental matters like religious education, sponsoring a sacrament candidate, and planning/preparation of baptisms, weddings, and funerals.

Registration is easy and can be completed online via our website listed at the top of the next page. If you are a long-time member of St. Brigid, call or email us to make sure we have all your latest contact information. Our goal is to build stronger communication with our community.
