ON THE COVER

Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 in response to growing secularism and atheism. He recognized that attempting to "thrust Jesus Christ and his holy law" out of public life would result in continuing discord among people and nations.

FORMING DISCIPLES, BECOMING SAINTS

Welcome to St. Michael the Archangel Family of Parishes. Our Family is comprised of six churches: Mary, Help of Christians in Fairborn, Sacred Heart in New Carlisle, St. Augustine in Jamestown, St. Brigid in Xenia, St. Luke the Evangelist in Beavercreek, and St. Paul in Yellow Springs. Two of our churches, St. Brigid and St. Luke, also have schools with preschool through eighth grades.

We are part of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and were combined as a Family in July of 2022 to be "Beacons of Light," an Archdiocese-wide, multi-year initiative to better array resources for spreading the Gospel far and wide. SMAFP staff are listed below and on subsequent pages dedicated to each church.

Beloved in Christ,

We will offer our regular four Masses on Thanksgiving this Thursday. Not only is the Eucharist the perfect way to begin such a day, it's also the perfect prayer of thanksgiving. See the previous page for those regular Mass times.

Next Sunday begins a new liturgical year and the season of Advent. So, before it all begins, I provide the following for preparation:

The world outside will try to convince us it's Christmas, but it's really Advent December 1 – 24, beginning with vigil Masses on November 30. The challenge for the Christian is to observe Advent during Advent and Christmas during Christmas. Advent is a penitential season of expectation and preparation. Christmas is the season of celebrating the birth of Jesus December 25 – January 12, which is 19 days this year, 79 percent the length of Advent.

How do we resist the cultural pressure of jumping right into Christmas? The Advent wreath in a prominent place in the home provides a teaching moment for every member of the family as an additional candle is lit each week. The Jesse tree can go a long way until it is appropriate to put up a Christmas tree. An internet search will provide dozens of ideas for ornaments that teach salvation history leading up to the time of Jesus.

Speaking of Christmas trees, when is the best time for them? My research shows that Christmas Eve has the longest historical connection. Plus, this prominent decoration coincides with the season it celebrates. But if that raises too many eyebrows, Advent provides the "Advent shift" as another option.

From December 1 to December 16, the focus of Advent will be the second coming of Jesus at the end of the world and how we prepare to meet Him. However, December 17 – 24 focuses on the anticipation of Jesus 2,000 years ago and the events that led up to His coming the first time. Thus, December 17 is packed with meaning as the day of the shift (more good information about this is at aleteia.org/2018/12/05/the-real-meaning-and-origin-of-the-christmas-tree).

Advent is also a great time to build a crèche (nativity scene). However, an appropriate teaching moment is to keep the Baby Jesus out of the manger until Christmas.

In the parish offices, we are setting the trend: Christmas parties during Christmas, not Advent. The 19-day Christmas season provides three weekends, and many people have time off work, but more on that in the coming weeks.

Thanks for your prayers. Be assured of my daily prayers for you.

God Bless,

SPEAK LIFE

PSR

Reminder, no PSR next Sunday, December 1. Have a Blessed Thanksgiving!

Liturgical Colors

Have you grown comfortable viewing green every Sunday at mass? We've seen green vestments and a green parament on the altar for almost half the year! That means a change is fast approaching. December 1 will be the first Sunday of Advent, and as you probably know, we will trade our green of Ordinary Time for violet. Most parishes own only one set of violet vestments and paraments or altar cloths, but the violet of Advent is actually a bit different from the red violet of Lent. The proper color for Advent is blue violet, much like the dusky violet of a winter sky in our Northern hemisphere. (Some protestant denominations use blue for Advent, but as Catholics, we stick to violet, symbolizing our waiting and preparation for the second coming of Christ.) Advent continues until the eve of Christmas, but on the 3rd Sunday of Advent, we have an option of using a dusky pink to celebrate Gaudete Sunday—a signal that our Advent waiting is almost over.

Happy Thanksgiving

Immaculate Conception:

Mass for the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary at MHC will be on Monday, December 9, at 7:45AM. The parish office will be open. This is a Holy Day of Obligation.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL NEXT COLLECTION DECEMBER 14-15

St. Vincent de Paul collects monetary donations at the doors after Mass on the 3rd weekend of every month. Look for baskets at each of the doors marked for St. Vincent dePaul. This week we will collect a box of mashed potatoes.

PARISH ADVENT BOOKS THE MAGNIFICAT ADVENT COMPANION

This pocket sized Companion follows a practical, page-a-day format and features original meditations on each day's Gospel by one of twenty-four gifted authors. Each year's Advent Companion is different from the last, and contains these one-of-a-kind extras that you won't find anywhere else. Copies are provided by the parish and are located in the Gathering Space.

JOY CLUB

Will meet Monday, November 25 at 1:00 p.m. in St. Francis Hall. Come to enJOY an afternoon of cards, games or bingo along with fellowship and refreshments with your fellow parishioners and friends.

THE GIVING TREE IS COMING NOVEMBER 30 AND DECEMBER 1- PLEASE WATCH FOR IT!!

Again, this year, D of I will be sponsoring the Giving Tree to collect presents and food for the most needy in the area. There is a quick turn around with how Christmas falls this year. The tree will go up in the gathering space on November 30 with tags attached with wishes and needs for our "families." Please take a tag or two and follow the instructions for getting the gift and bringing it back for delivery on or before Sunday morning, December 15. Please help us help area families have a special Christmas for their children. Please call Amanda @ 937-620-0701 or Annie @ 937-409-5299 if you have any other questions. Watch the bulletin for more details.

Welcome to all who celebrate the Mass with us today. May God's grace and peace fill us all so that we can serve one another in unity and love.

NEW PARISHIONERS WELCOME!

To register, visit the parish office, the website or pick up registration form at the front entrance of the church and drop it in the collection.

By helping the poor, you give thanks to your God for the blessings he has given to you. The pantry needs include soup, fruit and vegetables in cans, spaghetti sauce, boxed macaroni and cheese, and canned prepared foods, such as baked beans, and ravioli. We can always use toilet paper and cleaning products-laundry and dish soap. Jesus made it clear that we will always have poor persons with us. ## The Origins of Christ the King

In an effort to promote peace in the aftermath of World War I, Pope Pius XI determined there would be a new Mass added to the Sunday liturgy—the Mass of Christ the King. The first Mass was celebrated October 31, 1925.

That particular year was significant because of political uprisings on three major fronts. The first was led by Benito Mussolini, the fascist dictator in Rome. The second was Adolf Hitler's rise to power, who soon would become the dictator of Germany. His third concern was Joseph Stalin, who was about to assume the role of Premier of the Russian communists.

The politically astute Pope Pius XI recognized these developing dangers, and he quickly brought the weight of the Catholic Church against the three dictators.

He ordered the Mass of Christ the King to be established, proclaimed and preached all over the world. Later, he would write other encyclicals against the dictators and condemn their ruthlessness.

The tremendous emphasis placed upon the biblical teachings of Christ the King was the centerpiece of the Church's resistance to the fascists, the Nazi party and the communists. Pope Pius XI told those dictators and those "petty kings" that there is only one king of the world—Jesus Christ.

This year on Sunday, November 24, we will gather again to celebrate the 99th anniversary Mass of Christ the King, and our religious liturgy will continue to profess that we believe in the sacred value of truth. With Jesus as our King, we will continue to hope and pray the Lord's Prayer: "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

Our earthly kingdoms are material and temporary, but the kingdom of God is spiritual and universal—founded on Truth and sustained by Love.

The dictators of the past have died, and our current political climate will also pass. So, at present and in the future, may we pledge allegiance to Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe.
